Forecast for Monday 06 Jun 2022

Weather: Overcast skies with low cloud blanketing many slopes at first, with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle easing and largely dying out by mid-morning. Cloud lifting early in the afternoon with some bright or sunny spells developing, but with a risk of the odd light shower in places. Any showers fading during the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 10% at first improving to 80% by early afternoon.

Low Cloud and visibility: Widespread low cloud at 400-500m through the morning, covering many slopes. This lifting late morning onwards to around 1000m, though with patches redeveloping near 800m at times, especially in showers. Visibility initially moderate or poor in rain and drizzle, but improving to generally good beneath cloud late morning onwards, with only brief deteriorations in any passing showers.

Meteorologist's View

Be aware that UV levels will be high during any sunny spells on Monday afternoon, and sun protection is recommended.

Forecast for Tuesday 07 Jun 2022

Weather: Any early valley fog patches around dawn soon clearing to leave bright or sunny spells, but with isolated light showers developing mid-morning onwards. These showers fading by mid-afternoon, but outbreaks of rain will spread from the southwest in the evening, with cloud lowering to cover many slopes mid evening onwards.

Maximum wind: South to southwest 15-20mph gust 25mph.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: Generally 90% or better, but 40% in the west at first. Deteriorating to 40% mid-evening onwards.

Low Cloud and visibility: Patchy cloud will cover some western slopes above 400m during the early hours, but this will lift and clear not long after dawn. Otherwise only small amounts of cloud with bases near 1000m during the day, before more extensive cloud with base 400-500m develops mid evening onwards. Visibility generally good beneath cloud, but poor in any valley fog first thing, and moderate to poor in evening rain.

Temperature: Valleys: Plus 8 Celsius becoming Plus 17 Celsius.
At 800m: Plus 9 Celsius.
Freezing level: Above the summits.

Friday	Bright or sunny spells and the chance of some afternoon showers. Strong southwesterly winds. Freezing level above the summits.
